

Job vacancy for a Junior Project Officer (with Tanzanian Citizenship) at FES Tanzania

In 2012 the Tanzania Office of the Friedrich-Ebert-Foundation will create the new position of a Junior Project Officer with the following tasks:

- Analysis of political, social and economic issues
- Drafting of conference papers and seminar reports
- Assisting in the planning, implementation and follow up of political education activities and seminars
- Participation in the financial and organizational administration of project activities.

We offer:

- A project based One-Year-Contract
- A monthly gross salary of 1.000.000,-- TSH
- Attractive annual leave of 27 days and other benefits
- The qualification opportunity to work in an international office

Candidates not older than 27 years require:

- Very good command of English and Kiswahli
- University qualification
- Very good understanding of political and social developments
- Excellent organizational and administrative skills
- Openness, reliability, flexibility, team-spirit and tolerance

Please forward your full application in English language to:

Dr. Stefan Chrobot
Resident Director
Friedrich-Ebert Stiftung
P.O. Box 4472
Plot No. 397 Kawawa Road
Dar es Salaam

Or by email:

info@fes-tanzania.org